PLAYLISTING

Little Misty's collection of music has been repeatedly heard on Spotify's editorial playlists such as Folk Alliance 2023 and Renegades, as well as hundreds of listener playlists.

"With sun-soaked lapsteel underscored by gentle percussion, rhythmic guitars and lilting strings, the band lean into their storytelling strengths across the album's 10 tracks. Samman's vocals uplift throughout, even as fantastical songs' subject matter turns pragmatic"

EXCLAIM!

"The playing and singing are masterful."

AMERICANA UK

"An ethereal quality, a feeling of nostalgia, a jazzy undertone, a hint of indie rock, and clear overtones of chanson française."

MONTREAL ROCKS

"The stage version of the album amply fulfilled its promises with accomplished and invested musicians."

SORS-TU?

"Melodious vocal blending and serene instrumentation"

CANADIAN BEATS

"Dreamy in an innovative manner, it defies assumption elegantly."

THE WILD IS CALLING

"Delicate, expressive vocals, polished indie-folk production...an overall warm and intimate atmosphere"

CAESAR LIVE N LOUD

"The band delivers a type of genuine warmth; a noticeable organic chemistry between both lead vocalists."

LITTLE MISTY AT THE GOLDEN LION | ENHANCED TRAINING AND ARRANGEMENTS FOR A SUCCESSFUL LAUNCH

After discovering Little Misty on stage at the end of last year, I find the band again at the Lion d'Or where they present, for the first time in Montreal, their excellent second album Nowhere Land

Video Premiere: Little Misty "Windmill (Live at The Treehouse Music Collective)"

A snowstorm can't stop Little Misty from delivering a beautiful live version of Windmill. The Montreal based quintet filmed this session at the Treehouse Music Collective in the ski town of St-Adèle Quebec. Gorgeous shots of the pine trees outside being dusted with freshly fallen snow are interspersed throughout the performance. The group sits tightly together and expertly delivers the song about an old windmill on a hill with singing generations of people pass by. The playing and singing are masterful. The mix by engineer Charles-Emile Beaudin is extraordinary, capturing every nuance of the vocal seven though the singers are a mere metre from the drumkit.

"We were surprised that we made it to the Treehouse that morning," explained Kathryn and Francois. "Getting out of the city in the snowstorm was a bit of a challenge! But in the end, it was absolutely beautiful up north and we were really psyched about making music. We're glad we captured the vibe!"

"Windmill" is the first single from the forthcoming sophomore album Nowhere Land due in stores and on streaming services in April 2023. Little Misty will be touring extensively through Canada this Spring.

The Cabaret Lion d'Or roared with a performance from Little Misty, showcasing songs off the new album Nowhere Land, as well as older songs and some covers.

Seven talented multi-instrumentalists led by Kathryn Samman & Francois Jalbert had the audience in rapt attention during their 1.5 hour set on May 27, 2023.

The set's atmosphere balanced between the gentle touch of a loved one to the intensity of a powerful ocean wave. Like a well oiled machine, the musicians weaved in and out of their parts effortlessly, and let each other shine.
